

Social Studies Department Mission Statement

Through the quality of its staff, curriculum, and instruction, the social studies department will strive to promote the practice of lifelong citizenship skills, develop democratic beliefs and values, and encourage active participation in our democracy.